Dahlgren Railroad Heritage Trail <https://www.dahlgrentrail.org/>

- General Information

Section 3 of the trail begins approximately 4 miles from Panorama Drive in The Meadows subdivision and continues to just off Rt. 624 at Owens Drive.

- Parking & Access

There is a small parking lot where the trail crosses Owens Drive with room for 3 cars on each side of the road. There is no public trail access from Little Ark Baptist Church on Rt. 624, and trail users are not authorized to access the trail property that passes adjacent to the church's cemetery. A temporary bypass has been created to go off the trail and around the cemetery. Please follow the flagged trail to the north side of the existing rail bed. A pipe blocks the trail at the western side of the bypass, and the eastern end is just past a private driveway.

Dahlgren Heritage Museum – The Dahlgren Heritage Foundation opened a new museum in King George County, Virginia, in October 2013, that serves as a center for community education, recreation, unique exhibits, and stunning naval artifacts. <https://dahlgrenmuseum.org/>
